

Successor to Slaymaker & Co., No. 13, 15 and 77 King street, cor. Royal, Alexandria, has the finest and best regulated Dry Goods Store this side of New York. Call and be convinced of this fact.

Cooler—The weather.

Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood, the Washington female lawyer, paid us another visit on Monday last. She is to take charge of a case that Mr. Daniel Thomas, of Gallant Green, has in litigation provided she can gain admittance to our bar. She did not apply at this term, as the case was postponed until the fall.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. George Matthews, employed in the tobacco warehouse in Baltimore, met with quite a severe accident on Thursday of last week.—It seems that he was lighting the lamp by which the wax that is used in stamping the samples is melted, exploded in his face and burned it considerably, taking his eyebrows and mustache completely off. It was a fortunate thing for him that it did not get into his eyes, for his sight would certainly have been destroyed. It will relieve his many friends in the county, all of whom we are sure sympathize with him greatly, to learn that nothing more serious than the singing occurred, and he is now doing well.

One Price to All.

At I. Eichberg's, successor to Slaymaker & Co., you will find it to your advantage to do your dealings in Dry Goods, Notions, Carpets, Matting etc. Alexandria, Va.

Good Logic.

A word to those who neglect to avail themselves of the business opportunities we offer. For nearly thirty years we have supplied the retail demand for Men's, Boy's and Children's clothing in this city and State satisfactorily. Our class of clothing is too fine for dealers in small towns to keep, and is much better than is generally